

Blessings at Christmas.....

Dear Church Family

A few weeks ago as I took my children to go Christmas shopping for their mom, my daughter decided that she wanted to get her mom a picture frame. I wasn't for sure if she was getting it for the frame or the picture of flower inside. I graciously tried to explain to her that most people that shop for a frame get rid of the picture inside and replace it with one of their own. However she was determined that she wanted the picture of the flower to remain! And so the decision was made, not only did my beautiful daughter get her mom a very pretty frame with a picture of a flower inside, she bought two!

As I was having this conversation with her I was reminded of the FRAME analogy that we used several years ago with our Young Adult Ministry. When you take a photograph you hope to preserve a moment in time that you can cherish forever. You take that photo and you place it in a FRAME to be displayed for all to see. No one notices the FRAME, only the photo. Our life with Christ is just like that photo, God is to be displayed for His greatness, His glory and for what He has done on the cross! As we enter this new year be reminded, we are the FRAME; display GOD!

God Bless,
Jason
